

Parallel Journeys Pre/Post Assessment

1. What is social justice?
2. To what extent does power or the lack of power affect individuals?
3. What is oppression and what are the root causes?
4. How are prejudice and bias created?
5. What are the responsibilities of the individual in regard to issues of social justice?
6. Can literature serve as a vehicle for social change?
7. When should an individual take a stand against what he/she believes to be an injustice?
8. What does power have to do with fairness and justice?
9. Do we have choices concerning fairness and justice?
10. What allows some individuals to take a stand against prejudice/oppression while others choose to participate in it?

Post

Students will have to create a project showing their knowledge of what they have learned during the course of the unit. They must be able to answer the above questions within the project. Projects could be PowerPoint's, prezi's, artwork, etc. The students will be allowed choice.